The Open - Round 4

Hot indeed it proved for Bluvshstein in the new year, as Zhao used the white pieces to perpetrate a minor upset on Board 1 by inflicting defeat on the top seed. From an unbalanced position with Zhao having two minor pieces against rook and two pawns, the Aussie IM gradually took advantage of his opponent's doubled isolated b pawns, eventually capturing them and winning the game by advancing his passed a pawn. Ian Rogers also had white, and used this to good effect to win his 10000th game against Darryl Johansen (OK, perhaps I exaggerate slightly!) from a rook and opposite coloured bishop ending a pawn ahead. Perhaps the most excitement occurred on Board 3, where Junta Ikeda proved once again he was not scared of grandmasters by viciously attacking Dejan Antic; sadly for Junta, he missed a forced mate and suddenly found himself defending an ending with queen and one pawn against queen and two; but then he fought like a tiger as always, and ended up drawing in the last game to finish. Andrew Brown held Smirnov to a draw in an always balanced position, as did Zhigen Lin with Rujevic; while some youngsters wreaked havoc a bit lower down, with Robert Hvistendahl, Gary McNamara and Michael Morris all causing upsets (against Farrell, Dizdarevic and Hilton Bennett, respectively).

The Minor - Round 6

A beautiful last round win over Emma Guo saw Allen Setiabudi complete an outstanding tournament victory on 6/6; he safeguarded his own king with bishop and knight, then decisively attacked Emma's king with his queen, rook and pawns! Six higher rated players out of the way, and a massive rating gain; Allen is certainly going places... Mark Wicks was unable to win a slightly better bishop ending against Samuel Dalton, the draw enabling the top seed to pull up to equal second on 4.5/6 with Avram Buciu. Avram beat James Li, who was thus relegated to the Under 1200 prize on 3.5/6. Brian Mengelkamp (4/6) won the Under 1400 prize, while the prize for best junior was shared on 4/6 by Emma Guo and Edward Xing.

The Major - Round 1

Yet another supporting event at the 2006-07 Australian Open Chess festival is the Major, a 6 day event for players rated under 2000. Like the Seniors, this is being held over 6 rounds from January 1 to January 6, 2007. Like the Minor and the Seniors, it is being played at the unusual Fischer time control of 80 minutes per player with a 20 second increment. It is a very tightly packed event, with the top seed John Fedec being rated only 1878 and second seed Brian Thomas 1832. But then there are 11 players 1699 or above, including some of those pesky little juniors; all dangerous, and all capable of winning the event...

And the first round supported this thesis, as the cry "upsets galore" rang round the tournament hall! It all began with the top seed, who looked like he was positionally winning and indeed eventually won a pawn against David Webster (1699); but then he swapped off queens too early, and ended up with the wrong minor piece in an unwinnable good knight vs bad bishop ending. At least he knew he was not alone, as Tristrom Cooke (1611) drew from a position of strength against third seeded West Australian junior Yita Choong (1794); Tristrom eventually converted his advantage into an extra exchange, but with all the pawns on the same side of the board he could not win. Most of the other top seeds did win; but it was especially hard work for Shaun Press (who only beat Mat Garcia after the latter's one move blunder into a discovered attack) and Mos Ali, who was very lucky to escape a piece down against Stephen Mugford after the latter blundered. Eighth seed Marc Vlietstra (1735) was not so lucky, underestimating the attack of underrated ACT junior Edward Xing (1456); after winning two pawns early he miscalculated a combination, and ended up queen for rook down and eventually getting mated!

The Seniors - Round 1

There was some doubt as to the event ever taking place; but in the end, enough players indicated interest to hold a seniors event. Another supporting event at the 2006-07 Australian Open Chess festival, this event is for players aged over 50, and is being held over 6 rounds from January 1 to January 6 2007. Like the Minor, it is being played at the unusual Fischer time control of 80 minutes per player with a 20 second increment. While top seed Brian Jones holds a rating advantage over the field, it still looks likely to be a very close event. Phabulous Phil (Viner), Daring David (Lovejoy), Gunning Gus (Korda) and Leading Leon (Kempen) are all close enough in rating to challenge BJ; it will be interesting to see how they go...

If one is to judge by the first round, one thing is for sure: the seniors take their time! They were all still playing when most of the games in the Major (held concurrently) were finished. Brian Jones (2115) was sure there was a mistake with the rating of his opponent Karl Galli (1163); BJ eventually won an ending a piece ahead, but it was hard work... Joe Marks always had the initiative against Tony Baldwin, ending up cashing in extra pawns in a queen and pawn ending by forcing a queen swap; but Phil Viner could not break through Leon Kempen, having to be content with a draw in an unbalanced queen and minor piece ending. David Lovejoy was the most convincing, winning material against Gus Korda and winning the first game to finish.
